The Brenda Strafford Foundation Purchases Forest Grove Care Centre, Calgary, Alberta

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we are very pleased to announce that The Brenda Strafford Foundation has purchased Forest Grove Care Centre. The Brenda Strafford Foundation will assume the operation of the facility effective December 1, 2010.

Forest Grove is a 250 bed long-term care facility located in the southeast quadrant of Calgary which was privately owned and operated by the late Mr. Jack King since 1972.

The Brenda Strafford Foundation operates Bow View Manor, a 193 bed long-term care facility, in northwest Calgary and Wentworth Manor, with 214 suites of combined long-term care and assisted living, in southwest Calgary. The Foundation is currently building a 150-bed facility in Okotoks which is scheduled for completion in December 2011.
