Dear Valued ACCA Stakeholder:

Re: Announcement of Tammy Leach's Resignation as CEO

On behalf of the ACCA's Board of Directors, I would like to advise you that Tammy Leach has tendered her resignation as CEO to initiate a transition into retirement that will allow her to spend more time with her family. Tammy's last official day will be May 10, 2019, with a kind offer to remain on in a part-time capacity if necessary while the ACCA and the Board move through this period of transition and recruit her replacement.

During her five and half years as CEO with the ACCA, Tammy has made many significant contributions to advancing the ACCA's mission of championing quality of care, quality of life and enhanced wellness for Albertans requiring continuing care. The Board sincerely appreciates Tammy's leadership, dedication and unwavering work ethic towards serving the needs of our members and all Albertans - both through her direct involvement as CEO, as well as through the tireless efforts of her Administrative Team.

In closing, please join me in expressing our collective gratitude and heartfelt appreciation to Tammy for all that she has contributed and accomplished in her role as CEO and wishing her every happiness for the future.

Yours sincerely,

Ian Woodcock, BSc, MHSA, CHE
