ABOUT THE ACCA INSPIRING QUALITY (IQ) CONFERENCE

The Alberta Continuing Care Association (ACCA) is excited for the return of the annual Inspiring Quality (IQ) Conference.

Major transformation has occurred, and continues across continuing care in Alberta, from legislative reform to reviews of every sub-sector, and new norms following unprecedented COVID-19 experiences. Care services and delivery must continue to adapt and innovate to meet growing demand and evolving expectations. IQ23 will be an uplifting opportunity to connect, share, collaborate, propel sector innovation and learn best practices to sustain and elevate quality in Alberta's continuing care sector.

The IQ conference has always celebrated excellence in the industry, highlighting leading quality initiatives in Alberta, Canada, and globally. Expecting over 300 delegates, IQ23 is a must-attend event incorporating more dedicated opportunities to connect, and gain new insights with colleagues, leaders, and decision-makers. The IQ23 Tradeshow will be allocated more focus than ever before, allowing our partners and exhibitors to connect, share experiences, and showcase the newest and most valuable products, services, technology, and innovations. We look forward to welcoming you to what promises to be a remarkable experience!

The Audience

All of ACCA's diverse member organizations are invited to participate, as well as facility operators, administrators, and front-line staff from continuing care homes in Alberta and across Canada; physicians, nurses, pharmacists, occupational therapists, and other continuing care providers; health system executives and representatives from government; educators and researchers; industry partners; and key stakeholders in the health care system, including residents and family members.

WHY PARTNER OR EXHIBIT?

Gaining targeted exposure for your organization, goods and services across ACCA's diverse and engaged audience is key among the many benefits of partnering with ACCA.

Generate brand awareness and sales leads with over 300 healthcare leaders, policymakers, and care providers in attendance.

Be part of a world-class educational program that fosters excellence and inspires quality improvement in continuing care.

Develop relationships with leaders in this area, as well as front-line care providers.

Exhibit your leadership by showcasing the importance continuing care plays in our health system through our comprehensive marketing campaign.
